The entire project gives one a rare sense of completeness. Right from the time you are greeted by the clubhouse packed with a wide range of unique features and amenities, to the panoramic views of the pool and expansive landscapes. Brigade Komarla Heights has been designed to create a relaxed urban living experience that exemplifies tranquility of nature and an active lifestyle.

Buffer areas within the site have been artistically transformed into green zones and vehicular movement is restricted to the periphery, making the clubhouse and other amenities completely pedestrian-friendly. Also, the refuge terraces at higher levels in the building double-up as extended gathering spaces, thus giving you a truly elevated experience of community living.
